Re: SEC v. James Velissaris, No. 22 Civ. 1346 (PKC)

Dear Judge Castel:

We represent the Plaintiff, Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission"), in the above-referenced matter. We write with regard to the scheduling order issued by the Court on April 14, 2022, which adjourned the Initial Pretrial Conference in this matter to April 25, 2022, at 3:30 p.m. (DE 10). As the Court is aware, the Government moved to intervene and stay the above-referenced matter until the resolution of the Criminal Case, and the Court issued a stay order as to the sole defendant in this matter on March 30, 2022 (DE 9).

In light of the Court's stay order, the Commission respectfully requests that the Initial Pretrial Conference be adjourned to a future date following the dissolution of the stay. The Defendant consents to this request. If the Court wishes to proceed with the Initial Pretrial Conference before that time, the Commission respectfully requests that the Initial Pretrial Conference be adjourned one week to May 2, 2022, due to a preexisting commitment for Commission counsel. The Defendant consents to this request as well.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "DHT", written over a horizontal line.
